

Fellowship in Advanced Endoscopy (ERCP and EUS)

This short-term fellowship program will provide comprehensive endoscopic training for doctors to excel in advanced gastrointestinal endoscopy. The training and core curriculum meets ASGE framework guidelines for assessment of competency in gastrointestinal endoscopy.

Level: Advanced

Course Director: Prof. Amit Maydeo

Venue: Fourth Floor, Tower Building, Institute of Gastrosciences, Sir HN Reliance Foundation Hospital and Research centre, Girgaon, Mumbai

Master the skills and technique by utilising this hands-on training to incorporate ERCP in your clinical practise

STRUCTURED ERCP TRAINING

Course Objective

- ✓ To learn tips and tricks of ERCP
- ✓ Perform live cases in presence of expert trainers
- ✓ Learn scope handling skills with a side viewing scope, orientation to the papilla
- ✓ Stent removal / placement techniques
- ✓ Techniques of selective biliary cannulation
- ✓ Sphincterotomy
- ✓ Stone extraction – balloon/basket

Duration of the course: 1 month / 3 months (Monday to Saturday 9.30 am – 6 pm)
(Note: Timings can be altered as per candidate's requirement)

Note: Overseas candidates need to get Eligibility Certificate and permission from the Medical Council of India for hands-on-training (Cost to be borne by candidate)

Stipend Not applicable

Eligibility criteria

Candidate should have prior knowledge of duodenoscopy and should have performed at least 25 duodenoscopies.

*MS (General Surgery), MCh (Gastrointestinal Surgery) DNB / DrNB/DM (Gastroenterology)
MD/DNB General Medicine with special interest in Gastroenterology*

Photocopy of degree certificates need to be submitted.

Admission is based on first come first serve basis.

ADVANCED HANDS-ON TRAINING IN DIAGNOSTIC EUS

Master the skills and techniques by utilising this hands-on training to incorporate diagnostic EUS in your clinical practice

Structured EUS training

- ✓ Learn linear anatomy of gastrointestinal and pancreatobiliary system
- ✓ Identification of common pathologies in the mediastinum and GI tract
- ✓ Technique and tips of EUS FNA/B
- ✓ observation of interventional EUS procedures

Eligibility criteria

Candidate should have prior knowledge of ERCP

MS (General Surgery), MCh (Gastrointestinal Surgery) DNB / DrNB/DM (Gastroenterology)

MD/DNB General Medicine with special interest in Gastroenterology

Photocopy of degree certificates need to be submitted.

Admission is based on first come first serve basis.

Duration of the course: 1 month / 3 months (Monday to Saturday 9.30 am – 6 pm)

(Note: Timings can be altered as per candidate's requirement)

Note: Overseas candidates need to get Eligibility Certificate and permission from the Medical Council of India for hands-on-training (Cost to be borne by candidate)

Stipend Not applicable

Responsibilities

Fellows must maintain confidentiality of patient reports.

Fellows must wear solid scrub top and pants while entering endoscopy suites.

Formative assessment

The fellow will undergo supervised hands-on training. The fellow will be performing live endoscopy procedures under expert supervision.

The certificate of fellowship will be provided on the last day.

Withdrawal from the course

The fees once paid will be non-refundable. The candidate may be asked to discontinue the course in exceptional circumstances where disciplinary issues surface which may be against the policies of the organisation.

Note: Food and accommodation will not be provided.